

Cathryn Michon and W. Bruce Cameron Biographies

Cathryn Michon is an award-winning comic, actress, improviser, screenwriter and book author who got her start in the touring company of Chicago's famed The Second City. She has been a writer for Emmy Award winning TV series like China Beach and Designing Women and is, with her writing partner W. Bruce Cameron, a screenwriter of the Amblin/Universal film A Dog's Purpose. As a stand-up comic, she has appeared in clubs and in major festivals like The Montreal Comedy Festival and The Toyota Comedy Festival and was a regular guest on NBC's The Today Show. She was the host for three seasons of AMC's cult hit Grrl Genius at the Movies, where she showed some of the greatest chick flicks of all time. She co-wrote and directed the award winning film Muffin Top: A Love Story, adapted from her novel The Grrl Genius Guide to Sex (With Other People). She also stars in with David Arquette (Scream) Melissa Peterman (Fargo) Marissa Jaret Winokur (Tony Winner, Hairspray) Haylie Duff (Napoleon Dynamite) David Arquette (Scream) Retta (Parks and Recreation) Maria Bamford (Arrested Development) and many more comedy all-stars.

W. Bruce Cameron is the #1 New York Times Bestselling author of the novel A Dog's Purpose, and was also a screenwriter for the film. His first bestselling book, 8 Simple Rules for Dating My Teenage Daughter became the People's Choice award winning series 8 Simple Rules, starring the late John Ritter. Bruce was also a Nationally Syndicated Newspaper columnist, and has won both The National Society of Newspaper Columnists "Columnist of the Year" award and the Robert Benchley Award for Humor. His newest book, A Dog's Way Home, debuted on the New York Times Bestseller list. His books have also won the American Booksellers Association Award, and was a Top Five Goodreads book of the year. He is also the co-screenwriter of the film Muffin Top: A Love Story, currently on Amazon Prime.